

FINAL REPORT

Funding of programmes and projects

In accordance with the Funding Agreement, the recipient is required to submit a final report to the raum AU, Meškova ulica 3, 2380 Slovenj Gradec, Slovenia, EU; startadialog@dolinadialoga.si.

The final report is also intended to be published in various media, therefore the use of appropriate terminology and the description of the subjects in a way that is understandable for everyone (e.g. when referring to the project objectives, you name them, etc.) is recommended. The content of Parts B.I. and B.II. must be translated into English for the purpose of publication in public reports and in other international media outlets.

A. GENERAL SECTION

I. Details of the beneficiary.

Full name of organisation
Name and surname of responsible person
Total project value

II. Details of the project / programme.

Name of project/programme:

The project/programme was implemented (please specify dates)

The project/programme took place at location(s):

The project / programme involved: (please quantify and define groups)

B. CONTENT SECTION

I. Describe the implemented project.

II. To what extent have you achieved the objective you set out in your planning and how has your project helped to spread the idea of the dolina:dialoga fund??

III. Assessment / Suggestion / Critique.

(Evaluate the call for proposals and the idea for the fund; Contribute general and concrete suggestions; Express your critique on the functioning and ideas of the fund.)

C. ANNEXES

List of attached documents, photocopies or photographs that provide evidence of the projects / programmes implementation and that you are submitting as a legitimate ground for the final disbursement.

Final report prepared by:

Name and surname:

Signature of the person responsible

Place and date:

STAMP

The responsible person is the signatory to the agreement who, by his/her signature, certifies the truth and accuracy of all the information given in the final report and is responsible in accordance with the contractual obligations undertaken.